DISCUSSION

At different points in a single discussion, or in any given discussion session, each member may contribute in a number of different ways.

lead disagree record question evaluate link

LEARN

support agree share expand focus respond

All of these behaviors lead to learning. All of these behaviors are essential to a successful discussion in which members of a group share their knowledge and resources to better understand a particular problem or topic. Notice that certain behaviors are not acceptable in a discussion: attack, ridicule, sarcasm, non-participation, domination, exclusion.